

HYPER

Meaning: 'HYPER' refers to being excessively energetic or active, often characterized by an overabundance of energy or intense focus.

1. The hyperactive puppy couldn't stop bouncing around the living room.
2. Her hyper-focused attention made it easy for her to complete the complex project ahead of schedule.
3. After a long day at work, he felt too hyper to settle down and relax.
4. The scientist noted a hyper response in the subjects after administering the new drug.
5. His hyperbole during the story made it entertaining, even if it wasn't entirely true.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hyper>