

HYPERCHLORIC

Meaning: Hyperchloric refers to a chemical substance, particularly an acid, that contains a high concentration of chlorine and is known for its strong oxidizing properties.

1. Hyperchloric acid is a powerful oxidizing agent commonly used in laboratories.
2. The researchers carefully handled the hyperchloric solution to avoid any chemical reactions.
3. Due to its instability, hyperchloric compounds must be stored under specific conditions.
4. The hyperchloric reaction produced a noticeable change in the color of the solution.
5. Safety protocols were strictly followed when dealing with hyperchloric substances in the experiment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hyperchloric>