

HYSTERICIS

Meaning: HYSTERICIS: a state of uncontrollable laughter or emotional outburst, often characterized by extreme excitement or distress.

1. She broke down in hysterics when she heard the unexpected news.
2. The comedian's performance sent the audience into fits of hysterics.
3. In the midst of the crisis, her hysterics only made the situation worse.
4. He struggled to contain his laughter as his friend erupted into hysterics.
5. The child's hysterics echoed through the store, drawing the attention of everyone nearby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hysterics>