

ICHOROUS

Meaning: ICHOROUS: resembling or containing a watery, foul-smelling discharge, often associated with infection or decay.

1. The doctor noted the ichorous discharge from the wound, indicating a possible infection.
2. After the storm, the ichorous water pooled in the streets, giving off a foul odor.
3. The ichorous fluid seeping from the old tree signaled its decay and impending death.
4. He recoiled at the sight of the ichorous substance oozing from the abandoned building.
5. The ichorous taste in the back of her throat was a clear warning of her illness.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ichorous>