

ICHTHYOLOGIST

Meaning: An ichthyologist is a scientist who specializes in the study of fish, including their behavior, ecology, and migration patterns.

1. The ichthyologist spent years studying the migration patterns of salmon in the Pacific Northwest.
2. During her internship, she assisted the ichthyologist in collecting specimens from local rivers.
3. The ichthyologist presented her groundbreaking research on fish populations at the international conference.
4. As an experienced ichthyologist, he specialized in the taxonomy of freshwater fish species.
5. Curious about marine life, she decided to become an ichthyologist after a summer volunteering at an aquarium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ichthyologist>