

ICTERIC

Meaning: Icteric refers to a yellowish discoloration of the skin and eyes, typically indicating jaundice or liver dysfunction.

1. The patient's skin appeared icteric, indicating a possible liver dysfunction.
2. She was concerned when her newborn exhibited icteric symptoms that needed immediate attention.
3. The doctor explained that icteric sclera can be a sign of jaundice in adults.
4. After the tests revealed elevated bilirubin levels, the doctor confirmed the icteric condition.
5. His icteric complexion was a clear indication that he should visit a healthcare professional.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/icteric>