

IDIOTIZE

Meaning: To idiotize means to make someone foolish or to reduce their capacity for critical thinking, often through the influence of misleading information or superficial entertainment.

1. The constant stream of misinformation can idiotize even the most rational thinkers.
2. Many critics argue that reality television shows tend to idiotize their audiences.
3. It's disappointing to see how some media outlets choose to idiotize the public rather than educate them.
4. Exposure to superficial content can unintentionally idiotize individuals, making them less critical of the world around them.
5. When we avoid complex discussions, we risk creating an environment that can idiotize the younger generation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/idiotize>