

IDLENESS

Meaning: Idleness is the state of being inactive or doing nothing, often resulting in a sense of restlessness or contentment.

1. Idleness can often lead to feelings of restlessness and dissatisfaction.
2. The beauty of a lazy Sunday afternoon lies in the sweet embrace of idleness.
3. In a world that glorifies busyness, idleness is often misunderstood as a sign of failure.
4. Her idleness during the summer months allowed her to rediscover her passion for painting.
5. He found a sense of peace in idleness, appreciating the moments of quiet reflection it provided.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/idleness>