

IDOLIZER

Meaning: IDOLIZER: a person who greatly admires and idolizes someone, often to the point of imitation and idealization.

1. An idolizer often places their favorite celebrity on a pedestal, believing they can do no wrong.
2. The young musician became an idolizer, emulating every aspect of her idol's style and performance.
3. In a world filled with influencers, being an idolizer can sometimes blur the line between admiration and obsession.
4. He was such an idolizer that he decorated his room with posters and memorabilia of his favorite athletes.
5. Critics argue that being an idolizer can limit one's originality and self-expression in the pursuit of imitation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/idolizer>