

ILLIBERALISM

Meaning: Illiberalism is a political ideology characterized by the rejection of liberal democratic principles, often involving restrictions on individual freedoms, such as free speech and press.

1. Illiberalism often manifests through restrictions on free speech and press.
2. The rise of illiberalism in various democracies has raised concerns among political analysts.
3. Many fear that illiberalism undermines the foundations of a pluralistic society.
4. Political leaders sometimes embrace illiberalism to consolidate power and control dissent.
5. Understanding the dynamics of illiberalism is crucial for safeguarding democratic values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/illiberalism>