

ILLUSION

Meaning: Illusion: a deceptive appearance or impression that misleads the senses or perception.

1. The magician's performance was a stunning display of illusion, captivating the audience's imagination.
2. In the world of virtual reality, the line between reality and illusion can often blur.
3. Her confidence was merely an illusion, masking her deep-seated insecurities.
4. The painting created an illusion of depth, drawing viewers into its vibrant landscape.
5. Despite his claims of success, his wealth turned out to be an illusion, built on borrowed money.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/illusion>