

ILLUSIVE

Meaning: Illusive: deceptive or difficult to grasp, often creating a false impression or evading understanding.

1. The magician's tricks were so illusive that the audience struggled to grasp how they were performed.
2. Success often feels illusive, especially when faced with numerous obstacles and setbacks.
3. In the foggy landscape, the distant mountains appeared illusive, shifting in and out of view.
4. Her memories from childhood were illusive, fading like whispers in the wind as she tried to recall them.
5. The concept of true happiness can be illusive, often evading those who search for it most fervently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/illusive>