

ILLUSORY

Meaning: Illusory: deceptive or misleading, often creating an impression of reality that is not genuine.

1. The magician's tricks were so convincing that they felt almost illusory.
2. Despite the bright colors of the sunset, the warmth of the day was quickly becoming illusory as the chill of night set in.
3. Many believe that happiness is an illusory state, constantly shifting and elusive.
4. The promise of a perfect life in the city turned out to be illusory for most newcomers.
5. Her confidence in the plan seemed illusory, as the obstacles began to pile up unexpectedly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/illusory>