

IMBANNERED

Meaning: Imbannered: adorned or decorated with banners or flags, often to signify allegiance or celebrate an identity.

1. The ancient warriors marched proudly, imbannered with the colors of their clan.
2. In the festival parade, the children were imbannered in bright silk flags, celebrating their heritage.
3. The castle's battlements were imbannered with heraldic emblems, signifying the family's noble lineage.
4. During the political rally, supporters were imbannered in vibrant scarves, rallying behind their candidate.
5. As the home team took the field, they were imbannered in team colors, igniting the crowd's enthusiasm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imbannered>