

IMBAR

Meaning: Imbar (noun): a surge or overwhelming wave of intense emotions or feelings.

1. The artist's latest work was an imbar of emotions, capturing the complexity of human experience.
2. As the crowd cheered, he felt a sudden imbar of joy and disbelief wash over him.
3. The imbar of traditions in the festival showcased the rich cultural heritage of the community.
4. In her speech, she expressed an imbar of gratitude for the support she had received throughout her journey.
5. Navigating the imbar of opinions at the meeting proved to be more challenging than he had anticipated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imbar>