

IMBIBER

Meaning: Imbiber: a person who drinks, especially alcoholic beverages, often with enthusiasm or enjoyment.

1. The enthusiastic imbiber enjoyed sampling a variety of wines at the vineyard.
2. As an avid imbiber, she often sought out the newest craft breweries in town.
3. His reputation as a generous imbiber made him a popular figure at social gatherings.
4. The local pub attracted many imbibers looking for a comfortable spot to unwind.
5. While some prefer to sip slowly, others are more eager imbibers, finishing their drinks in a flash.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imbiber>