

IMBIBITION

Meaning: Imbibition is the process by which a substance absorbs liquid, particularly water, leading to swelling or expansion.

1. Imbibition is a crucial process for seed germination as it allows seeds to absorb water.
2. The rapid imbibition of the dry sponge amazed the children watching it expand.
3. In botany, imbibition refers to the absorption of water by substances such as seeds and gels.
4. Understanding imbibition can help scientists develop better methods for soil moisture retention.
5. The imbibition of the gelatin led to a dramatic increase in its size and texture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imbibition>