

IMBLAZON

Meaning: To emblazon means to conspicuously display or decorate something, often with a design or inscription.

1. The company decided to emblazon their logo on every product to enhance brand recognition.
2. During the ceremony, the award was emblazoned with the recipient's name in bold gold letters.
3. The team worked tirelessly to emblazon the school mascot on the new uniforms.
4. They chose to emblazon the walls of the gallery with vibrant murals that told a story.
5. To celebrate the anniversary, they planned to emblazon the town square with colorful lights and decorations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imblazon>