

IMBORDER

Meaning: To imborder means to surround or enclose an area with a border or boundary, often enhancing its appearance or providing privacy.

1. The lush garden seemed to imborder the quaint cottage, creating a picturesque scene.
2. The new fence will imborder the property, giving us more privacy from the neighbors.
3. Wildflowers began to imborder the riverbank, adding color to the serene landscape.
4. The artist chose to imborder the mural with vibrant patterns that drew the eye.
5. They decided to imborder their flower bed with stones to create a defined edge.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imborder>