

IMMIXABLE

Meaning: Immixable refers to substances that cannot be mixed or blended together, often resulting in a distinct separation.

1. Oil and water are immixable, resulting in a clear separation of the two substances.
2. The chemist explained that certain liquids are immixable due to their different polarities.
3. In the experiment, the immixable solutions created a striking visual contrast in the beaker.
4. Their personalities were so different that they seemed almost immixable in social settings.
5. The artist used immixable colors to create a vibrant and dynamic painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/immixable>