

IMMOLATOR

Meaning: Immolator: a person who sacrifices something, often through fire, as part of a ritual or offering.

1. The immolator stood before the crowd, igniting a powerful flame that symbolized sacrifice.
2. In ancient rituals, the immolator's role was crucial for appeasing the gods with offerings of fire.
3. The story recounted how the immolator transformed into a martyr, consumed by the very flames he wielded.
4. Few understood the immolator's motives, as he embraced destruction with a fervor that defied reason.
5. Legends spoke of an immolator whose fiery acts changed the course of history, leaving a lasting legacy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/immolator>