

IMMUNITY

Meaning: Immunity is the condition of being protected or exempt from a particular disease or legal liability.

1. The vaccine provided her with immunity against the virus.
2. His extensive knowledge of the law granted him a kind of immunity in the courtroom.
3. Many animals develop natural immunity, allowing them to resist certain diseases.
4. The treaty established diplomatic immunity for ambassadors and their staff.
5. Researchers are studying how long immunity lasts after recovering from an infection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/immunity>