

IMPAIRMENT

Meaning: Impairment refers to a loss or reduction in physical or mental function, often affecting abilities such as mobility or communication.

1. The accident resulted in a significant impairment of her mobility.
2. Hearing impairment can greatly affect a person's ability to communicate effectively.
3. Regular exercise can help reduce the risk of cognitive impairment as we age.
4. The study focused on the visual impairment experienced by many elderly individuals.
5. Impairment of judgment is a common symptom in patients with severe anxiety disorders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impairment>