

IMPALATABLE

Meaning: Impalatable: unpleasant or unacceptable to taste or experience, making it difficult to endure or appreciate.

1. The chef was disappointed to find that the new dish was completely impalable, leaving diners unsatisfied.
2. Her impalable attitude towards criticism made it difficult for her to improve in her career.
3. Despite its beautiful presentation, the dessert was so impalable that most guests left it untouched.
4. The politician's impalable response to the scandal only fueled further public outrage.
5. He found the impalable silence in the room more unsettling than any words could express.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impalatable>