

IMPALPABLE

Meaning: Impalpable: unable to be felt or perceived physically; intangible or difficult to grasp emotionally or conceptually.

1. The beauty of the sunset was impalpable, leaving a lingering sense of awe in the air.
2. His emotions were so deep and complex that they felt almost impalpable to those around him.
3. The artist captured an impalpable essence of joy in her latest painting that resonated with viewers.
4. In the dim light of the library, an impalpable tension hung between the two friends, unspoken yet palpable.
5. The concept of time can often seem impalpable, slipping through our fingers like sand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impalpable>