

IMPANEL

Meaning: To impanel means to select and enlist a group of individuals to serve as jurors for a legal trial.

1. The judge decided to impanel a jury to hear the complex case.
2. During the trial, the lawyers were tasked with selecting individuals to impanel.
3. After much deliberation, the court was ready to impanel jurors for the upcoming trial.
4. To ensure a fair process, the court will impanel a group of diverse citizens.
5. The procedure to impanel a jury can vary significantly from one jurisdiction to another.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impanel>