

IMPANELMENT

Meaning: Impanelment refers to the process of selecting and assembling a jury for a trial.

1. The impanelment of jurors is a crucial step in ensuring a fair trial.
2. Following the impanelment, the case was set to begin the following week.
3. The judge explained the process of impanelment to the potential jurors in detail.
4. After the impanelment, several jurors expressed their concerns about the case.
5. The lengthy impanelment process delayed the start of the highly anticipated trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impanelment>