

IMPARDONABLE

Meaning: IMPARDONABLE: adjective describing an action or offense that is so serious or reprehensible that it cannot be forgiven.

1. Her actions were so impardonable that even her closest friends struggled to forgive her.
2. The judge deemed the crime impardonable, sentencing him to the maximum term allowed.
3. In their eyes, betraying a confidant was an impardonable sin that shattered trust forever.
4. He felt that the error in judgment was impardonable, leaving him with a heavy burden of regret.
5. The impardonable mistakes made during the project led to its ultimate failure and loss of funding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impardonable>