

IMPARK

Meaning: To impark means to designate or allocate an area for public use or to park vehicles in specified locations.

1. The city council decided to impark the new recreational area to enhance community engagement.
2. With the new regulations, residents are encouraged to impark their vehicles in designated zones only.
3. As part of the initiative, they plan to impark the underutilized land to create green spaces.
4. The team worked tirelessly to impark the festival grounds, ensuring safety and accessibility for all attendees.
5. To prevent congestion, the organizers instructed guests to impark their cars in the nearby lots.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impark>