

IMPARTIAL

Meaning: Impartial means treating all parties or opinions equally and without bias or favoritism.

1. The judge is known for her impartial approach to every case presented in her courtroom.
2. In a true democracy, the media should strive to remain impartial and report the facts without bias.
3. An impartial referee is essential to ensure that both teams have a fair chance of winning the game.
4. It is difficult to find an impartial opinion on a topic as divisive as climate change.
5. To foster trust among the participants, the committee must be seen as impartial in its decision-making.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impartial>