

IMPATIENT

Meaning: Impatient: feeling or showing a restless desire for something to happen or a lack of tolerance for delays.

1. She was impatient to hear back from the job interview she had attended last week.
2. The children grew impatient as they waited for the fireworks to begin.
3. Despite his impatient nature, he tried to remain calm during the long meeting.
4. I could tell from her tapping foot that she was feeling increasingly impatient.
5. His impatient remarks only added to the tension in the room.
6. She became increasingly impatient as the meeting dragged on without any clear agenda.
7. The impatient child tapped his foot, eager to open his birthday presents.
8. Despite her efforts to remain calm, the long wait made her feel more and more impatient.
9. He was impatient for the results, checking his phone every few minutes for updates.
10. Impatient with the slow service, she decided to leave the restaurant before ordering.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impatient>