

IMPAWN

Meaning: To impawn means to deposit an item of value as collateral for a loan, with the understanding that it will be forfeited if the loan is not repaid.

1. She decided to impawn her grandmother's ring to cover unexpected expenses.
2. The pawn shop owner explained the terms of how to impawn valuable items.
3. After realizing he needed cash quickly, he chose to impawn his guitar.
4. They were reluctant to impawn their family heirlooms, but they felt it was necessary.
5. Once she impawned her watch, she knew she had to buy it back before the loan deadline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impawn>