

IMPEARL

Meaning: To impearl means to give a lustrous, pearl-like quality or appearance to something, often creating a shimmering or radiant effect.

1. The sunlight seemed to impearl the surface of the ocean, creating a dazzling display of light.
2. She wore a necklace that appeared to impearl around her neck, catching the eye of everyone in the room.
3. As the artist painted, she tried to impearl the beauty of the sunset on her canvas, blending colors with delicate strokes.
4. The dew on the grass in the early morning looked as if it had been sprinkled with tiny pearls, impearl to the touch.
5. His eloquent speech seemed to impearl the ideas and hopes of the community, inspiring everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impearl>