

IMPELLENT

Meaning: Impelled by a strong motivation or driving force that compels action or decision.

1. The impellent force behind her decision was a deep sense of responsibility.
2. His impellent nature often pushed him to take risks that others would avoid.
3. The scientist described the impellent factors that drove the experiment's success.
4. In moments of doubt, the impellent urge to create art would surface within her.
5. Their impellent desire for justice led them to organize a protest for change.
6. The impellent force of her passion drove her to pursue her dreams relentlessly.
7. In moments of doubt, his impellent motivation helped him to overcome obstacles.
8. The impellent nature of the project inspired the team to work overtime to meet the deadline.
9. She felt an impellent urge to speak out against injustice, knowing it was the right thing to do.
10. His impellent desire for knowledge led him to explore fields far beyond his initial interests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impellent>