

IMPENITENCE

Meaning: Impenitence is the state of being unrepentant or showing no remorse for one's actions.

1. Her impenitence became evident when she refused to apologize for her actions.
2. The judge noted the defendant's impenitence as a factor in determining the severity of the sentence.
3. Despite the overwhelming evidence against him, his impenitence led him to maintain his innocence.
4. In the face of criticism, her impenitence was striking, showcasing a lack of remorse or reflection.
5. The community was frustrated by his impenitence, believing that accountability was essential for healing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impenitence>