

IMPENITENT

Meaning: Impenitent: feeling or showing no regret for one's wrongdoing or sins.

1. The impenitent thief showed no remorse for his actions even after being caught.
2. Despite the judge's harsh words, the defendant remained impenitent, insisting he did nothing wrong.
3. Her impenitent attitude towards her past mistakes made it difficult for her to move forward in life.
4. The impenitent sinner continued to engage in the same harmful behaviors without any signs of change.
5. In the face of overwhelming evidence, his impenitent denial left everyone in disbelief.
6. He remained impenitent even after the judge delivered a harsh sentence.
7. Despite the overwhelming evidence against him, his impenitent attitude shocked everyone in the courtroom.
8. The impenitent rebel continued to defy authority, refusing to apologize for his actions.
9. Even in the face of his family's disappointment, he was impenitent about his choices.
10. Her impenitent nature often led her to make the same mistakes repeatedly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impenitent>