

IMPERATIVAL

Meaning: Imperatival: relating to or expressing a command or directive that demands obedience or action.

1. The imperatival nature of her tone made it clear that there was no room for debate.
2. In the meeting, the manager's imperatival instructions left no doubt about the urgency of the project.
3. His imperatival approach to leadership inspired his team to take action without hesitation.
4. The teacher used imperatival phrases to guide the students through the complex task.
5. To ensure safety, the guidelines included several imperatival statements that everyone was expected to follow.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperatival>