

IMPERCEIVABLE

Meaning: Imperceptible refers to something that is so slight or subtle that it cannot be easily perceived or detected.

1. The changes in the landscape were so gradual that they felt almost imperceptible.
2. She moved with an imperceptible grace that captivated everyone in the room.
3. Despite his efforts to communicate, her disappointment remained imperceptible to him.
4. The imperceptible shift in temperature hinted at the coming storm.
5. As he listened closely, he could hear the imperceptible whispers of the wind through the trees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperceivable>