

IMPERCEPTIVE

Meaning: IMPERCEPTIVE: lacking the ability to notice or understand subtle details or cues.

1. Despite his intelligence, he remained imperceptive to the subtle cues in the conversation.
2. Her imperceptive nature often led her to miss the emotional struggles of her friends.
3. The artist's work was so complex that many viewers were imperceptive to its deeper meanings.
4. Even though she tried to explain her feelings, he appeared imperceptive to her distress.
5. His imperceptive attitude towards social dynamics made him an outsider in the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperceptive>