

IMPERIL

Meaning: Imperil means to put something or someone at risk of harm or danger.

1. The reckless decision to ignore safety protocols could imperil the entire project.
2. Pollution from the factory may imperil the health of local wildlife.
3. His refusal to comply with the regulations will imperil the community's safety.
4. Climate change continues to imperil ecosystems around the globe.
5. The lack of funding for the program could imperil its future effectiveness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperil>