

IMPERILMENT

Meaning: Imperilment refers to the state of being put in danger or at risk of harm.

1. The reckless decisions made by the management led to the imperilment of the entire project.
2. Her constant disregard for safety protocols placed her colleagues in a state of imperilment.
3. The community rallied together to address the imperilment of their local wildlife habitat.
4. In times of crisis, the imperilment of public trust can have lasting effects on leadership.
5. His actions were a clear imperilment of the fragile peace that had been established.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperilment>