

IMPERMEABILITY

Meaning: Impermeability is the quality of a material or substance that prevents the passage of fluids through it.

1. The impermeability of the material makes it ideal for use in waterproof clothing.
2. Scientists are studying the impermeability of certain soils to better understand water retention.
3. The new sealant significantly increased the impermeability of the basement walls.
4. Understanding the impermeability of membranes is crucial in designing effective filtration systems.
5. Engineers must consider the impermeability of the barrier when developing flood defense strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impermeability>