

IMPERMEABLE

Meaning: Impermeable: not allowing fluid or gas to pass through; resistant to penetration by liquids or gases.

1. The new waterproof jacket is made from an impermeable material that keeps the wearer dry in heavy rain.
2. The scientist explained that the membrane is impermeable to gases, making it ideal for the experiment.
3. Due to its impermeable nature, the protective coating prevents water from seeping into the wooden surface.
4. In a desert environment, impermeable clay layers can create unique geological formations by trapping water below the surface.
5. The team developed an impermeable barrier to protect the structure from potential flooding during storms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impermeable>