

IMPERSONAL

Meaning: Impersonal: lacking warmth, emotion, or personal connection; detached.

1. The impersonal tone of the report made it difficult for readers to engage with the material.
2. In an impersonal world dominated by technology, personal connections often feel rare.
3. The teacher's impersonal approach to grading left many students feeling undervalued.
4. His impersonal demeanor during the meeting suggested he was not invested in the outcome.
5. The website's impersonal design failed to create a welcoming atmosphere for new visitors.
6. The writing style in the report was notably impersonal, lacking any emotional engagement.
7. In an impersonal society, personal connections often take a backseat to efficiency and productivity.
8. The teacher's impersonal approach to feedback left students feeling undervalued and disconnected.
9. Many modern workplaces embrace an impersonal culture that prioritizes results over relationships.
10. While the data was thorough, the presentation felt cold and impersonal, failing to resonate with the audience.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impersonal>