

IMPERSONATE

Meaning: Impersonate: to pretend to be someone else, often for the purpose of deception or to entertain.

1. He tried to impersonate his favorite actor at the charity event.
2. The scammer managed to impersonate a bank official and deceive several customers.
3. In the play, she had to impersonate a famous historical figure to convey the story's message.
4. It is illegal to impersonate a police officer, as it undermines public trust.
5. During the prank, he would impersonate his teacher to make everyone laugh.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impersonate>