

IMPERSONATOR

Meaning: Impersonator: a person who pretends to be someone else, often by mimicking their voice and behavior, typically for entertainment or deceptive purposes.

1. The impersonator skillfully mimicked the famous actor's voice and mannerisms.
2. After a lengthy investigation, the authorities apprehended the impersonator who had been scamming vulnerable fans.
3. During the charity event, the impersonator delighted the audience by performing a comedic routine as their favorite celebrity.
4. The magician's assistant turned out to be an impersonator, adding an unexpected twist to the performance.
5. Her talent as an impersonator earned her a spot on the popular television show.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impersonator>