

IMPERTINENTLY

Meaning: Impertinently means in a rude or disrespectful manner, especially by interrupting or speaking out of turn.

1. She impertinently interrupted the speaker, drawing disapproving glances from the audience.
2. The child answered back impertinently, shocking the adults at the dinner table.
3. He impertinently questioned the authority of the teacher in front of the entire class.
4. Despite the serious nature of the meeting, she spoke impertinently, making light of the situation.
5. When asked to leave, he impertinently refused, challenging the rules of the establishment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impertinently>