

IMPERTRANSIBLE

Meaning: Impertransible: unable to be crossed or passed through; impassable.

1. The river was impertransible during the heavy rains, blocking all attempts to cross.
2. Despite their best efforts, the negotiations reached an impertransible point of disagreement.
3. The mountain pass was impertransible in winter, forcing travelers to take a longer route.
4. Her mind was impertransible when it came to changing her opinion on the matter.
5. The ancient fortress stood impertransible against the siege, its walls defying all assaults.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impertransible>