

IMPERTURBABLY

Meaning: Imperturbably means in a manner that is calm and unflappable, showing no signs of agitation or disturbance.

1. She faced the unexpected criticism imperturbably, maintaining her composure throughout the meeting.
2. Even during the chaos of the storm, he navigated the boat imperturbably, trusting his instincts.
3. The seasoned diplomat spoke imperturbably, carefully choosing his words to defuse the tense situation.
4. Despite the uproar around him, the philosopher continued his lecture imperturbably, focused on the ideas he wished to convey.
5. Imperturbably, she accepted the news of her promotion, knowing that her hard work had finally paid off.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperturbably>