

IMPERVIABLE

Meaning: Impervious means unable to be affected or penetrated by external forces or influences.

1. The ancient fortress was designed to be impervious to enemy attacks.
2. Her thick skin made her impervious to the harsh criticisms of her peers.
3. Despite the heavy rain, the waterproof jacket kept him impervious to the elements.
4. The scientist discovered a material that was impervious to even the strongest acids.
5. His calm demeanor made him seem impervious to the stress of the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imperviable>